

CONTACT

-  314.991.4999
-  314.872.0364
-  shiotis@summerscomptonwells.com

Stephen Hiotis has extensive experience in the administration of probate estates and trusts, as well as fiduciary litigation. Mr. Hiotis is actively involved in estate planning for clients, including trusts, wills, powers of attorney and fiduciary tax matters.

Mr. Hiotis also focuses on civil litigation matters in state and federal court, including corporate and business transactions, bankruptcy and creditor rights, condemnation, real property and landlord-tenant. He has also briefed and argued numerous appeals in state and federal appellate courts. Mr. Hiotis was a member of the Saint Louis University Law Journal editorial board and served as law clerk for the late Honorable Robert G. Dowd, Missouri Court of Appeals, Eastern District.

In addition, Mr. Hiotis' practice areas include assisting individuals and businesses in all aspects of corporate and business law, real estate, employment and he has extensive experience with non-profit entities.

PRACTICE AREAS

- Bankruptcy, Financial Restructuring and Debtor Creditor
- Education and School Law
- Estate Planning and Wealth Management
- Litigation
- Probate

EDUCATION

- Saint Louis University School of Law (J.D. 1980)
- University of Miami (B.B.A. 1977)
B.A., English, Dartmouth College, cum laude

www.summerscomptonwells.com

BAR ADMISSIONS

- Missouri, 1980

ASSOCIATIONS & MEMBERSHIPS

- The Missouri Bar
- Bar Association of Metropolitan St. Louis

COURT ADMISSIONS

- State of Missouri
- U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Missouri
- Eighth Circuit and Ninth Circuit U. S. Courts of Appeal

